Adult $20
Child $17
Family (4 people) $60
Ages: 5+

Their innovation and their passion towards educating and empowering kids through music making, particularly kids with disability, should be supported.

You're an Instrument is an engaging performance for kids aged 5-12, featuring two scientists who take students on a wild interactive ride where every movement, thought and emotion becomes music. Contrasting ancient acoustic sounds with the very latest electronic technological breakthroughs, this is a fun, magical (and sometimes scary!) performance where the audience shapes the story, shakes their bodies, and makes music together!

Framed as a 'workshop gone rogue' this crazy, quirky experience is an ideal intro to cutting-edge interactive musical practices, theatre, science, science-fiction and the power of sound-art and storytelling. The Sonicrats are a group of professional performers and real-life music technology researchers. You're an Instrument is a fun and inclusive performance perfect for primary school ages & special needs audiences (with their educators, families and community)

SEBASTIAN SCOTNEY,
LONDON JAZZ NEWS

Nina Ferro is one of the brightest stars of the international jazz scene. Her powerful, evocative voice, stunning vocal range and extraordinary stage presence have earned her an enviable reputation at home and around the world. Who better to pay tribute to The Queen of Jazz - the great Ella Fitzgerald!

You don't need Mr. Bennett's musical ear to realise he is right. Once she starts to sing, even if you can't tell an octave from an octopus, you'll know instantly that you are in the presence of a formidable talent.

Lady Be Good is a joyous, swinging tribute to the First Lady of Song and the legends of The Great American Songbook she most loved to interpret - George Gershwin, Irving Berlin, Rodgers & Hart, Cole Porter and Duke Ellington. Songs include How High The Moon, The Lady is a Tramp, Blue Skies & Someone to Watch Over Me.
